

K-Love has recently come on air in our community and I have found refuge in it. My family listens to it and my co-workers listen to it. It is uplifting and informative and would be greatly missed if it was displaced. It serves as a news source like no other station I have encountered.